Saluting the Leader.

At 3.02 the blasts that salute a facer who is rounding a mark were heard at the club-house, indicating that Ethel-wynn had performed half of her pour-ner, and was starting out on the second run before the wind.

At 3.05 Ethelwynn appeared before the delighted clubreen and women in the Seawanhaka observatory with spin-naker set and making the water boil under her hows as she sped forward on the second round of the course.

It was not until 3.08 that the whistles telling of Spruce's rounding were heard. Thus Ethelwynn was siy minutes (unofficial time) ahead of Spruce IV, when the first half of the race was over.

On the beat to the second turn Ethelwyn clearly had the best of the game. She was remarkably quick in stays and pointed very high. Spruce IV, was a little slower in coming about, but followed her leader pluckly.

Ethelwynn left the second mark on her starboard quarter at 3.02.02, and broke out her spinnaker immediately to port, but was not able to get it set until twenty seconds after she left the mark. Spruce IV, turned at 206.07, leaving the mark on the same side as did Ethelwynn. She broke out her spinnaker immediately to go the second form.
